

NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

Tot Bites Friend, Hides Away, Neighborhood Scoured in Hunt

By ADALINE CORTEZ DA 4-6878
Feeding a certain uneasiness as to her future, following the biting of a friend, three-year-old Terry Malloux, daughter of Ed Malloux, 2627 W. 175th St., hid in a garage and was lost for almost an hour.

While neighbors combed the area searching for Terry, she hovered in the garage, and it was only when the owner backed his car in and locked the door that she became frightened enough to knock on the door and call for help.

Spring days are made for parties, vacations and other exciting events and North Torrance residents have entered into the spirit of the season!

Peggy Sale, 17009 Almsworth Ave., completed plans for the beautiful pink and white bridal shower she held for Kay North, bride-elect.

On a table covered with pink, waxy tulle was centered a white wire basket of pink flowers, ribbons streaming out to pink nosegays, flanked by two tall, white tapers.

On a corner of the place cards were a miniature bell and wedding ring tied with white tulle.

Games played were "Dressing the Groom" and "Name the Cake," won by Pat Hershner and Barbara Stroop, respectively.

Present were Misses Sharon Bradley, Pat Hershner, Barbara Stroop, Verita Salice, Patti Galvino, and Mesdames Shirle Sala, Ruth Bradley, Mary Basch, Rosalie Alman, Virginia Brown, Adele Harper, Inez Hershner, Rose Reixon, Velma Nelson, Clara Minor.

Then, just ahead of the June brides, was the wedding of Penny Hansen to Jerry Allison. In the ideal setting of the Allison's garden, guests in the rustling, petticoated, pastel gowns enjoyed the pink tiered wedding cake decorated by Hene Allison.

Pink tulle caught at each end of the table in swags held by pink nosegays, decorated the bride's table.

Pink punch and pink tea sandwiches served from a pink French flower cart completed the beautiful appointments.

Familiar faces in the crowd were the Bob Richters, Clinton Seedons, Ed Collins, Virginia Morgan, Peggy Sale, Betty Brewer, Clarence DeCamps, Doris Babb and Ruth Snell, all in white.

Janis Bates, 17039 Glenburn Ave., flew to Oklahoma this week to attend a series of graduation ceremonies beginning with a niece's graduation from Junior High in Ft. Supply, another niece's High School graduation in Ada, and a High School graduation at the Ft. Supply High School where her sister is a teacher and her brother-in-law is superintendent.

Then, for the graduation ceremonies she has planned for many years, she will go to Durant where her son, Leroy Downing, will be graduated from Southeastern State College, with a bachelor of science degree.

Her other son, Jerry, now attending UC at Santa Barbara, will be graduated this June.

Her airline tickets were a Mother's Day gift from Mary Jan and husband, Alex Bates.

Cub Pack 761 Committee meeting, held at the home of Chairman J. H. Cortez, planned an outing for the Cub Scouts, taking them to Wrigley Field Saturday afternoon for the ball game.

Parents attending the game were: Joe Swenson, Arthur Ault, Ralph Delitz, Riley Buck, Jerry Cunerty, John Miller and J. H. Cortez.

Speaking of Scouting, we hope everybody will visit the Scout-O-Rama at the Coliseum June 3-4.

Boys of all Scouting ages are working hard on the exhibits and on ticket-selling for this event.

The Cub Mothers of Pack 763 planned a Pie Auction at Verburg's Rumpus Room for June 4, at a meeting held at the home of Jo Hunter, 16902 Casimir Ave. Refreshments served by Mesdames E. Clein, and Birdie Schultz.

Present were Mesdames Harold Vandarslice, Eugene Freeman, Richard Hays, Thelma Johnson, Paul Wright, E. K. Porter, Clyde Smith, Phyllis Pearce, Fran Revvo, Marjorie Aggen, Opal McKee, C. R. Stauffer, W. R. Buffington, W. Wilson, Paul Rose, Paul Wright, and Bob Donnelly.

Some kids complain about getting chicken pox, what if they caught them again a week and a half after being released from the first quarantine?

That happened to sad and spotty two year old Johnny Birka, son of the Kenneth White's, 2703 West 176th St.

Second grader Michael Perolo is home with Whooping Cough.

A lovely afternoon tea was held by Mary Krumwiede in honor of Sarah Bramlett, who recently moved into North Torrance.

Sarah is the sister of Mrs. Ruth Towell, 17612 Erinista Ave. Guests each brought a coffee cup, starting a collection for the lucky Mrs. Bramlett!

Present at the tea were Pat Stamm, Ann West, Connie Gestelum, Ruth Towell, Ruth Bruce, A. Cortez, and friends from her Los Angeles neighborhood.

The Harry Edmarks, 2928 West 176th St., drove a beautiful red car to Las Vegas for the week end in the sun.

The W. O. Wilsons, spent last week end at the home of friends in Palm Springs, basking in the sun and swimming in the pool.

New cars we've spotted: The Russel Swansons in a long turquoise and white beauty; Jo Jensen in a canary yellow Ranch Wagon, the J. Snells in a plush turquoise and white four-door Riviera, and the Francis Stockles all set to order their new car this week!

If any of you notice a Kit Carson Campore badge on a boy you will know he earned it! Scoutmaster Johnny Miller took his Scouts out to Mineral Wells for a campout and they dove in, pitched camp in, camped in a sea of mud. They were wet, tired and cold but did not call it quits until park officials warned them to move out before they were flooded.

The Reese Holbrooks, 17512 Corise Ave., entertained fellow pupils from their square dancing class at St. Andrews Playground after class Saturday night.

Dancing until the wee hours in their new den were: The Bob Taylors, John Millers, J. Avalos, W. Towells, J. Cortez and the Gene Brandons.
